The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be thy name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the Kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A Blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face shine upon you
and be gracious unto you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you,
and give you peace.

Words of Farewell

Grandma,
We’re not really sure how to sum you up in a few words.
You were a huge part of our lives,
and we’re going to miss you more than we can say.

Thank you for everything.
For looking out for us, for the memories,
and for just being you.
We feel pretty lucky to have had you as our Grandma.

We’re going to let you rest now.
You’ve more than earned it.

You’ll always be with us, though,
in the things we remember
and the little bits of you we all carry.

Go and be with Grandad again now,
back together where you belong.

Thanks for everything, Grandma.
We love you, and we’ll see you again one day.
